ABBEVILLE, Ala., April 28.—The conviction of John K. Williams, white master, for the murder of a colored person, will probably result in more work to the Negroes of the South. Williams and other white masters of plantations have been carried on, than anything else that has occurred in a decade. There are white men in the South are not subscribers to these barbaric practices, but a statement of fact, yet it is equally true that far too long have many of the best citizens slept on their rights and permitted these inhuman cruelties to have things their way to the shame of their section and the loss of much of her manpower, which has led for want of protection.

This little town is not without its men of color who have been the victims of a conspiracy for centuries. Williams' supremacy, for centuries are revealed, which will put down that southern form of slavery. Williams' supremacy is in Wilson County, Georgia; Negroes are whipped against their will and kept in debt. Williams' supremacy is in such a way that if they attempt to leave they are arrested, whipped back and placed in chains.

NEGRO IS TO BE REG. OF TREASURY BY WHITE MAN

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Despite the protest of more than five hundred white women employees of the office of the register of the treasury, there are reliable reports today that the administration has practically decided to appoint a Negro Republican as register. Charles Cottrell of Toledo, who took an active part among colored voters in the Harding campaign, is slated for the post now held by William S. Elliott, of Georgia, a white official.

Cottrell is said to have the approval of both President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty, both of whom are acquainted with his services to the U. S. in Ohio. "He is now said to be enroute home to win up his personal affairs."

Henry Lincoln Johnson, of Georgia, has been selected to succeed Cottrell. Johnson is a colored man, but his appointment is expected to land another berth in Washington.

More than five hundred employees of the register's office recently petitioned the administration and members of congress against the appointment of any Negro as register. They claimed that the appointment of a Negro to the office, which since the war, has become a most important position, would be a disgrace to the United States, and that the Negro would be a disgrace to the United States.

The Criterion feature this Saturday will be "Hollope." While the romance of two young people in this picture, the main theme is that of a father who sacrifices his life to prevent disgrace from befalling his daughter. It is the story of a new woman killed by a regenerated convict and of the happiness that comes to the father's daughter as a result of his heroic action.

On Sunday "Behold My Wife" will be presented. The story centers around the regenerated son of an aristocratic English family who, in a moment of rage against his father, marries a crude Indian girl and sends her overseas to disgrace them. But she turns the tables upon her husband in a most novel and dramatic manner. Next Thursday, The Criterion will offer "Falsion." So much has been said in these columns about this wonderful reel production that it is unnecessary to elaborate on its thrilling, absorbing story.

"Love, Honor and Behave" Will Open The Pendleton Week

The Pendleton Theatre will feature "Love, Honor and Behave" this Sunday and Monday. It is a Mack Sennett comedy showing the injustices of suspicion on the integrity of love by married people.

It incidentally bears a moral for the married and the unmarried alike, mainly it promotes much unrestrained laughter and genuine thrills.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, the theatre will present Katherine MacDonald in "Trust Your Wife," an unusual story of a wife with a new angle on the marriage triangle. Clara Kimball Young in "Hush" will be shown next Friday and Saturday.

"Greatest Love" and "Partners of The Tide" J&M Features

The feature at The J&M Theatre this Sunday and Monday will be "The Greatest Love." It is a love triangle with an appealing story of human sacrifice. How a mother's intuition solved a mystery that baffled the investigation of trained detectives, and how a mother's belief in her child saved him from a noble death, are brought in one of the most powerful dramatic climaxes ever devised for a picture. On Wednesday and Thursday, this theatre will present "Partners of The Tide." It is a thrilling story of a man, with audacity, above, and below the surface.

FEATURING AT THE MANHATTAN

"Jean Mc Elroy" "Hallowing," two of the biggest movie hits of the day will be featured by J&M. Jean Mc Elroy during the feature week at the Manhattan Cafe and Dance Palace. These entertainers, Harmony Kings are making a big hit with the picture. It is announced that the picture will be shown above and below the surface.

Sidelights Of Washington

The Associated Negro Press
New York has set the pace for "citizen action" that they will be followed by the rest of the country, and in keeping with the urgent suggestions of the Associated Negro Press, a committee representing the famous W. E. B. DuBois, L. B. Harris and other prominent colored leaders, called upon Senator Cullie and Governor Wood of New York, and put to them certain direct questions on their attitude on 7133 A. E. D. Harris, the colored leader, and other matters of American justice. They carried with them letters to the senators at first, an official stenographer, who took a report of the entire proceedings, and the same is reported in a statement of the meeting held in Dr. Martin Luther King's hospital office on the evening of April 28. Mrs. Rose Foster DuBois, a wife of the late Dr. DuBois, was in charge of the meeting. The committee consisted of John E. Robinson, chairman; Rev. F. T. McGowan, secretary; and Representative Thomas, of New York.

It is interesting to note that the committee that "nothing that happened in the world was as bad as conditions in the south." Senator Cullie, provided. The oldest colored religious organization in the District of Columbia is the Independent Baptist Church, organized in 1812. Rev. Albert J. Mitchell is the present pastor, and the church is very active in community work, conducting a community home, conducting a community home, and conducting a community home.
